

Build around data, not around inboxes or memories.

RunSales pulls every past offer, every accepted or rejected price, and today's market price into one place. Your sales team prices with data, not guesswork, and can create and send an offer in minutes.

50% faster

Time and effort cut on every single offer. From finding the right price to getting a PDF out the door, comparing the old scattered process to the RunSales flow.

With RunSales, a better flow

PRICE INTELLIGENCE

Know the price before you type it before you make the offer see what you charged last time, whether it was accepted, and the current market price .

INSTANT OFFER PDFS

One click from price to PDF

Every offer is auto-generated from your own template, description, photos and price included.

ONE INBOX

Every order, one address

A dedicated RunSales email address keeps orders from scattering across email, social media and chats.
